Hague, December 7, N. S.

THE Prince of Orange having received Advice, that the Princeſs Royal his Conſort was gone from Harwich for Dover in order to paſs over to Calais, left this Place on Saturday laſt in the Morning to go and meet her Royal Highneſs. The States of Holland have reſumed their Aſſembly this Day, but very likely will ſeparate in a few Days, the Penſionary being diſabled by the Gout from aſſiſting in the Aſſembly: However it is thought they will ſettle their Sea Affairs before they part, the Commiſſioners of the Admiralty continuing here, and conferring every Day with their Deputies. The Council of State are preparing as faſt as poſſible the State of the War for the next Year, to be communicated to the ſaid States this Seſſion if it can be got ready; and it is ſaid a Propoſal for augmenting the Forces will be inſerted in the Petition. We have an Account here, that the Germans in Italy have paſſed the Oglio and taken Sabionetta, where there were 250 French, who marched out by Capitulation.

Calais, Nov. 28. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange, embarked on the Fubbs Yacht at Dover laſt Night, and lay on board. At Eight this Morning the Yacht ſailed, and at Three this Afternoon Her Royal Highneſs landed here: The very ſame Hour his Highneſs the Prince of Orange arrived here to meet Her. Her Royal Highneſs was very Sick in this Paſſage of Seven Hours, the Wind having been contrary: But ſince Her coming on Shore ſhe is pretty well recovered. Their Highneſſes deſign to proceed from hence on Saturday. The Prince came hither by the Way of Bruges, Oſtend, Newport, and Furnes.

Deal, November 29.

Laſt Night about Ten a-Clock, arrived in the Downs his Majeſty's Yacht the Fubbs, commanded by Captain Collier, who had landed her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange at Calais that Afternoon.
